

PRAGUE'S BEST ATTRACTIONS

Most tourist attractions are situated in and around the Old Town and can be easily explored on foot.

A) Prague Castle and St. Vitus Cathedral – the largest medieval castle in the world – jewel of the Czech capital, enchanting large Cathedral, castle exhibition of Czech history, collection of Bohemian art, Prague Castle Gallery, Toy Museum, Powder Tower and Golden Lane are some of the places to see. Most monuments are open daily Apr-Oct 9am-5pm, and Nov- Mar 9am-4pm. Entrance fees are required for a few selected areas. Allow at least 1 1/2 day.

B) Old Town Sq. and Astronomical Clock – just in the heart of the Old Town surrounded by charming baroque, gothic and rococo architecture, OldTown Sq. is a great place to hang around, have a lunch at one of many of its cafes, hire a horse or buggy, browse markets stalls or just watch the Astronomical clock. Don't miss the Church of Our Lady Before Týn, the rococo Kinsky Palace, the medieval House at the Stone Bell and baroque St. Nicholas Church.

C) Charles Bridge – dating back to 1357 this bridge was built to replace Judith's Bridge from the 12th century. There are thirty sculptures that decorate the bridge date mainly from the baroque period. Charles Bridge is one of the most popular tourist spots – vibrant day or night, scattered with vendors and entertainers. Early morning is the best time to experience a less crowded walk, although a romantic evening walk through the impressively lit streets of Prague by night is nice too.

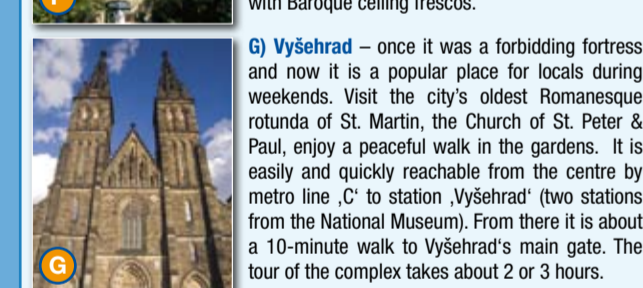

D) Jewish Quarter Josefov – oldest Jewish settlement in Europe named after emperor Josef II. Here are two figures synonymous with this part of the city, Franz Kafka and the mystical humnucistic Golem created by Rabi Löw. The Jewish cemetery, Old-new Synagogue, Klausen Synagogue and the Pinkas Synagogue are definitely worthwhile sights. Be prepared for entrance admission to most of the sights ranging from 200 CZK or just buy 480 CZK for a ticket encompassing all the sights.

E) Municipal House – Prague's most prominent Art Nouveau building with interior partially designed by Alphonse Mucha, built between 1905 and 1912. Visit the biggest concert hall in town (Smetanova Hall) and also don't miss coffee at the fabulous Municipal House Kávárna. Next to the Municipal House is Powder Gate – one of the 13 original fortified gates to Old Town. There is also a small exhibition about the tower and it is open for great views of the city.

F) Petřín Hill and Funicular – escape to the green peaceful grounds of Petřín, visit the Petřín Observation Tower, Observatory or just enjoy great views of the city. Funicular Railway to Petřín Hill is just opposite to tram stop Ujezd (trams 12, 22, 23) in Lesser Town. Railway runs in 10-15 min. intervals. From Petřín Hill you can take a walk to the Strahov Monastery. The monastery area includes the unique Strahov Library decorated with Baroque ceiling frescos.

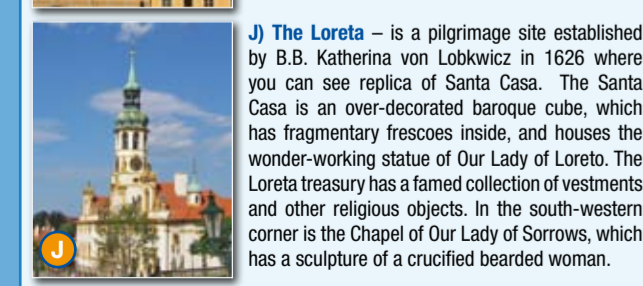

G) Vyšehrad – once it was a forbidding fortress and now it is a popular place for locals during weekends. Visit the city's oldest Romanesque rotunda of St. Martin, the Church of St. Peter & Paul, enjoy a peaceful walk in the gardens. It is easily and quickly reachable from the centre by metro line 'C' to station 'Vyšehrad' (two stations from the National Museum). From there it is about a 10-minute walk to Vyšehrad's main gate. The tour of the complex takes about 2 or 3 hours.

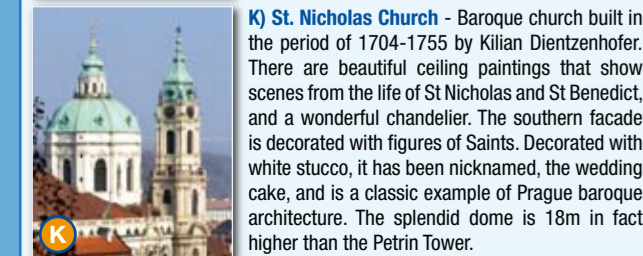

H) Wenceslas Square – is a hustle and bustle of commerce, tourist shops, restaurants, casinos, hotels, and countless shops. It really comes alive after dark, when its restaurants, cinemas and nightclubs attract the tourist crowds. At the northern end of the square you can find the neo-Renaissance National Museum and St. Wenceslas Monument. Another significant building is Koruna pałac – a covered shopping arcade with a stunning glass dome dating from 1911.

I) Church of Our Lady Before Týn – fascinating interior with gothic touches from the 14th century. The interior's Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque features include sculptures of Calvary, a pewter font and a 15th-century Gothic pulpit. The Danish astronomer Tycho Brahe is buried in a marble tomb here. The cathedral is an Old Town Square landmark with distinctive twin spires that are a reassuring sight to many tourists after losing their bearings in the narrow surrounding byways.

J) The Loreta – is a pilgrimage site established by B.B. Katherina von Lobkovic in 1626 where you can see replica of Santa Casa. The Santa Casa is an over-decorated baroque cube, which has fragmentary frescoes inside, and houses the wonder-working statue of Our Lady of Loreto. The Loreta treasury has a famed collection of vestments and other religious objects. In the south-western corner is the Chapel of Our Lady of Sorrows, which has a sculpture of a crucified bearded woman.

K) St. Nicholas Church – Baroque church built in the period of 1704-1755 by Kilian Dietzenhofer. There are beautiful ceiling paintings that show scenes from the life of St. Nicholas and St. Benedict, and a wonderful chandelier. The southern facade is decorated with figures of Saints. Decorated with white stucco, it has been nicknamed, the wedding cake, and is a classic example of Prague baroque architecture. The splendid dome is 18m in fact higher than the Petřín Tower.

This carefully selected walk covers all the most important sights of Prague, and seeing it with a great guide is like having the past suddenly rise to the surface. We stroll around the famous historical Prague quarters - Old Town, Jewish Quarter, Lesser Town and Prague Castle.

The first part starts on the Old Town Square with a general introduction to Prague. Admiring the impressive composition of old buildings and churches, we also become acquainted with the life of the Czech reformer John Huss. Crooked lanes lead us back around other keyholes into Prague's past: Mozart's Don Giovanni in the Estates Theatre, Karolinum - the Charles University since 1348, the cubist house of the Black Madonna and the medieval courtyard Ungelt. If there's time we also visit the Powder Gate and the majestic art nouveau building of Municipal House.

A visit to the Jewish Quarter leads us back to its tragic history. You discover the destiny of Prague Jews living behind the wall of the former ghetto. The Old-New Synagogue, the Old Jewish Cemetery, the Jewish Museum... visit with us the places where the fabulous Golem was created, and follow with us in the footsteps of the famous Jewish writer Franz Kafka.

After this, we walk to the Mariánské Square, where you have a 30-minute break from 12:45 till 13:15. At this stage you can decide whether you wish to continue after the break, or if you prefer you can come another day for the second part of the tour.

Our starting point for the second part is the beautiful baroque library of Klementinum. Crossing the Charles Bridge, the real "open gallery under the sky", we admire the peaceful view of Kampa Island, followed by the graffiti on Lennon Wall. Finally we reach the Lesser Town Square, the highlight of which is the great St. Nicholas Church. After a relaxing visit to the great St. Nicholas Church, we climb 200 steps leading to the Hradcanske Square. Here we reach Prague Castle, one of the biggest fortresses in Europe. This "city within the city" hides the Schwarzenberg Palace, Archbishop's Palace, Old Royal Palace, the Basilica of St. George... and the greatest architectural treasure - St. Vitus Cathedral. The walk finishes next to the Old Royal Palace with a charming view of Prague, the city of a hundred spires. It is really easy to walk, simple to understand and great to enjoy!

SUPERIOR TOUR OF PRAGUE

"Full day in Prague on foot, by river boat and by tram"
Starts at 11am daily
• Tour lasts 6 hrs
• Includes lunch, drinks, a boat cruise and a tram ride
• Optional pickup from your hotel free of charge

Wow, Prague in a day! This walk is a unique combination of the very best aspects of each of our walks. Moving from the magic little web of alleys in the OLD TOWN past the important milestones in the history of the JEWISH QUARTER and Wenceslas Square in the NEW TOWN, the site of astonishing protests and uprisings, we come to the river. Here we can enjoy a comfortable cruise that shows us the most romantic spots of Prague, such as the LESSER TOWN or Prague Castle, from most unusual angles. Then we board the tram to ascend the hill to PRAGUE CASTLE.

Inclusive of 1 hour cruise with refreshment

As we stroll around the Jewish Ghetto we can look into Jewish traditions and history. The ghetto is formed of small houses and narrow alleys and attracts tourists with its unique monuments - the Old Jewish Cemetery, the Old-New Synagogue (still in use), and the Jewish Museum. We admire the rich history of the Old Town with the marvellous Church of St. James, the medieval customs yard Ungelt, the Estates Theatre where Mozart's Don Giovanni was introduced to the world, and the Charles University, the oldest one in Central Europe. On Wenceslas Square we see where the Velvet Revolution occurred in 1989. After a typical Czech lunch served in a nice restaurant we take our cruise. Prague Castle crowning the top of a picturesque hill, the Lesser Town, the Church of St. Nicholas - a jewel of the Baroque, Charles Bridge - the oldest one in Prague, the National Theatre... Get unsurpassed views of all Prague's treasures from the river! After the cruise we come to the Castle, the real heart of Prague. Your guide takes you through all the courtyards, shows you the Old Royal Palace, the Basilica of St. George, the Royal Garden, the Golden Lane... and the architectural gem of St. Vitus Cathedral. On this tour with great guide, you can peer into the past from the 21st century.
